

Brandon Zuniga

Carstens & Cahoon, LLP | 972.367.2001 | 13760 Noel Road, Suite 900 | Dallas, Texas 75240

Brandon Zuniga practices in the area of intellectual property law, including patents, trademarks, trade secrets, copyrights, assignments, licensing agreements, employee agreements, non-disclosure agreements, and non-competition agreements. He is a registered patent attorney with the U.S. Patent & Trademark Office and a member of the State Bar of Texas.

Mr. Zuniga has prosecuted patents covering a wide range of technologies including food products, shoe manufacturing, compositions for natural sweeteners, high purity silicon production, a flowable matrix for wound regeneration, and the mass production of nucleotide sequences. In addition, he has experience as an engineer, which included designing processes and equipment for multi-billion dollar projects for several of the world's largest and most renowned oil and gas companies.

Mr. Zuniga obtained his law degree from Boston University, where he completed a concentration in Intellectual Property with honors. During law school, he served as a note editor for the Public Interest Law Journal and treasurer of the Intellectual Property Law Society. He also received the Dean's Award for the highest grade in Trade Secrets & Restrictive Covenants. Mr. Zuniga completed his undergraduate education at Rice University, where he completed a Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering.

Mr. Zuniga is additionally a member of the American Intellectual Property Law Association, Dallas Bar Association, American Bar Association, and American Chemical Society. He has dedicated many hours to community service, including volunteering with the Bone Marrow Transplant Unit at Texas Children's Hospital and serving as a mentor for underprivileged children at Yellowstone Academy. In his spare time, Mr. Zuniga enjoys strategy games, bicycling, sailing, and playing the guitar, piano, and saxophone.